

UFCW99REPORT EXTRA

100% Union

UPDATE FOR MEMBERS ON SUPERMARKET NEGOTIATIONS

Your union pride is key to our success

The collective bargaining process continues as negotiators from UFCW Local 99 and the union-affiliated supermarket chains meet to hammer out a new labor agreement.

In the meantime, we have heard from union members who want to know how they can help our bargaining team negotiate the best possible contract.

The best thing you can do in this regard is to always stand strong with your union.

If a customer shows interest in talking about negotiations, feel free to express your support for your union as long as it doesn't interfere with your duties.

Most importantly, make it known to management and your co-workers that you are a proud member of UFCW Local 99. And if a manager asks about your thoughts on negotiations, say "I support my union 100%!"

Keep in mind that corporate negotiators ask store managers to gauge support for the union in their stores.

JIM McLAUGHLIN,
PRESIDENT, UFCW LOCAL 99
UFCW INTERNATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT

Strong support from our members will discourage senior management from resisting contract improvements advocated by our negotiators.

Just as significantly, solidarity among our ranks sends a strong message to employers that they can't get away with demanding takeaways in wages, benefits and working conditions.

To get the facts about contract negotiations, look for future editions of 99Report Extra and follow updates on our union website, ufcw99.com, or the UFCW99 phone app, which is available free from the App Store and Google Play.

You can also subscribe to text notifications by texting NEGOTIATE99 to 83071,

In unity there is strength! Keep standing strong and united with UFCW Local 99!